"Spirit of the Eagle"

Dear Editor:

With deep regrets I have written to inform you of a grave injustice in which you and your fellow staff members have taken an active part. Everytime a productive student has left this university to take his or her place in our working society you have given credit to the late James Shepard and this institution, North Carolina Central University. I am the backbone behind Mr. Shepard and this university. I am the "Spirit of the Eagle"!

With the founding of this university by Mr. Shepard I have turned my attention from flying aimlessly at night to trying to help people. I have chosen to gather high school graduates from nations like Africa, Cuba, South America, etc. I have chosen graduates from states like New Jersy, New York, North and South Carolina, Florida, etc. I have chosen graduates from cities such as Charlotte, Fayetteville, Durham and even smaller cities such as Tin City. The assumption is that people from New York could tell others about riots and pimps, while the country crowd could tell them about cropping tobacco and what it means to have a "monkey on your row." My exchange program is working nicely also.

After my guinea pigs have gathered here I add 2 teaspoons full of brute spectator sports. From September to October I encourage my specimens to watch the football team in action; the moral of the lesson is to teach tackling future conflicts head-on.

After my guinea pigs have simmered in this environment for 2 months, I add four pinches of creative spectator sports. From October to February I allow my basketball players to run and gun, I encourage teamwork and school pride in both sports. I even allow my specimens to give pep rallies before home games.

My most important ingredient is a cup of knowledge. I order all of my people leaders to really get my specimens to study. No field of endeavor is closed to them. If they want to study law, biology, sociology, nursing, or anything they desire, I encourage them to study hours on end at night and rise before morning classes to study some more.

I fully realize that guinea pigs must have some sort of outlet and I provide movies. I allow musicians to perform concerts. I allow my students to participate in plays and organize dances.

I provide a dash of culture. The Ebony Fashion Show and the William O'Farrow Art Exhibit are two of my major accomplishments. If the coronation of Miss N.C.C.U. isn't culture then "grits ain't grocery." Black people must never forget where they came from and who helped them over their stumbling blocks. I let them celebrate Martin Luther King's birthday on January 15. I let them have a Black History Week from February 6-10. I even let them have a Founder's Day program in November.

My last ingredient is a teaspoon full of the future. On October 17, job interviews begin at the Career Counseling and Placement Bureau. I even allow a task force of graduated students to come back and give the less fortunate advice. On February 14, I'm allowing Tom Jackson to lecture on "Guerilla Tactics in the Job Market."

In conclusion, whether the students, yourself, or your staff members realize it or not I made you and I can destroy you. Prepare to give credit where credit is due or be prepared to meet your Maker.

Sincerely yours,
Spirit of the Eagle

EX UMBRA

The purpose of Ex Umbra is to promote student interest in the liberal arts, stimulate the student body toward free artful expression, enlighten and lend a more sophisticated atmosphere to the University community, and to create a forum whereby student talent may be given recognition.

Ex Umbra is Latin for "out of the shadows." This name was chosen because the members of the organization feel that the creative students at NCCU are too much in the shadows, and they need to be brought out into the light where their fellow students can recognize and enjoy their work. Ex Umbra expresses this idea.

CAMPUS ECHO

The purpose of the Campus Echo is to build pride that is the basis of school spirit; to interpret the newsworthy events in the life of this institution; and to provide a medium of expression for students interested in writing for publication.

As we all know, Socrates said, "Know Thyself". I'd like to say, "Know thyself, express thyself and through writing, perhaps others will learn themselves."

Footballers Score 1-10 Record
Coach Smith Resigns

1977 marked a low point in football at NCCU. The eagles suffered through one of their worst seasons in the history of the institution. However, all was not lost, as there were outstanding performances by three athletes — Reginald Smith, Joseph Mack and Walter Odom. Each was selected to the All MEAC Conference Team. Smith, a diminutive 5-6 wide receiver, was tied with Mack with 34 receptions this year for the conference lead. Mack was selected for the second straight year as the most outstanding tight end in the conference. Odom, a 6-1 middle linebacker, led the Eagles in tackles and was considered by many the best linebacker in the conference.

The season started off with the Eagles dropping a 14-10 decision to Virginia Union when the Panthers scored in the final minutes at O'Kelly Stadium. The following week the Eagles squeaked past the Vikings of Elizabeth City State 13-6. They then journeyed to Winston-Salem State and lost a heartbreaking game 21-13 when an intended pass to Joe Mack was ruled incomplete in the end zone on the Eagles' final possession.

Following a week's layoff, the Eagles returned to O'Kelly Stadium to host Morgan State. They exhibited their most potent offensive show of the year — racking up 290 yards passing and 160 yards rushing, but it wasn't enough as the Bears recovered from a 19-17 deficit to win 35-25.

It was all downhill from this point. The Eagles lost to Elon 50-8, Delaware State (Homecoming) 23-0, Maryland-Eastern Shore 14-6, South Carolina State 45-12, Johnson C. Smith 18-16, Howard 33-0 and A & T 25-6.

"SEARCH FOR TOMORROW"

Everyone who has enough foresight to go to college is really searching for their tomorrow; a tomorrow that is better than their today, a tomorrow that promises a better life than that of the past. We studied endless hours because we realized that there would come a tomorrow when we would take our places in society.
We are now ready to find that tomorrow.

Idea created by:
Elvis Davis

STUDENT LIFE

BEGINNING

The conceptualization of a growing productive and culturally rich institution may be found in the students' attitudes in regards to North Carolina Central University.

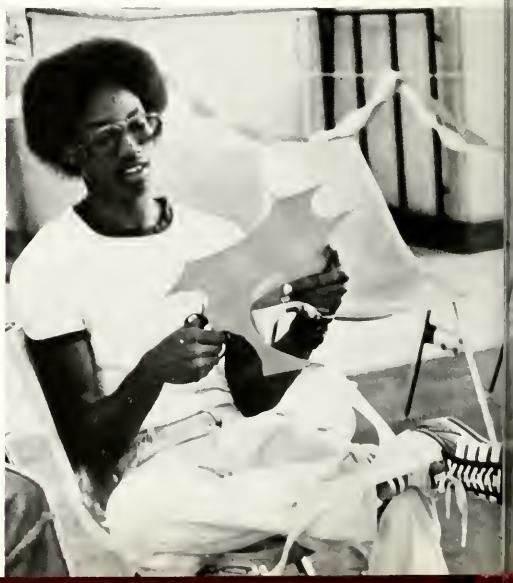
Central is a center of challenges and achievements which provides for an increase in knowledge. Pride has also constituted one of the major stimulates in student life. Students, liberals and conservatives, are constantly working together to improve themselves, the university and university community.

In recent years, the administration and the student body have established a strong plane of communication and progress has been inevitable. We are beginning to hear the alarms of our society and we are awakening from a world of ignorance and illusion. We are beginning to realize the effectiveness of collectively organizing and struggling toward common goals.

We are beginning to respect each other and help each other. We are beginning to manifest a long due self-pride and pride in our rich heritage. We are beginning to thoroughly and realistically deal with daily situations that at one time were combustions of confusion. We are beginning to share our experiences and learn from each other.

Yes, we are beginning to rise up and go forward. But, greatest of all, we are beginning with each other.

"In the spirit of the Eagle."
Jarvis Lessane



Wondering

Wondering, if tomorrow's thoughts will be wiser,
than yesterday's dreams;
Wondering, if future understanding will be clearer,
than past comprehension;
Wondering, if visions of a new born child will be brighter,
than an old man's heart;
Wondering, if the senses of my new soul will be as charming,
as my mother's laugh;
Oh, how desperate, is my wondering.

Dexter

UNTITLED

so many days—weary days, you came in dragging your feet, bearing the problems of the world on your shoulders, not wanting to hear the upsets of my day—
don't worry—
i understood you're trying to make it in another man's world—no one can do it for you and you're tired,
i know.
so lay your head
upon my pillow and forget your trials, burdens at least for the minute,
until tomorrow,
i'll understand

"Everything Must Change"

Take flight, oh great minds of madness
Open yonder galaxies of truth,
Enlighten ... elevate ... uplift my soul
Into insane reality.

Spread your wings and glide with me,
On down to N C C
Awake a slumbering frustrated eagle
Then nourish him with pride.
Render him strength ...
Strength in improving his situation
Give him courage ...
Courage in dealing with frustration.

Anxiety, Conflict, Confusion,
Levels, cliques, societies, block boys,
Places to go, people to see,
Things to do.

Not going anywhere
Not seeing anybody
Not doing anything
In own little worlds, not together

Wake up old dark souls
For time will bring the light.
Light ... Alarming light ...
King and Malcolm ... the light

Take flight, oh great minds of madness
Over shadow the ignorance ...
Separation ... and shame ...
For everything ... everything must change.

Her Majesty's Inauguration!

On September 24 McDougald gymnasium was turned into a queen's domain. The gymnasium was highly decorative with palm trees, large scenic posters, and a large fountain in the center of the gymnasium.

Many lovely Queens from our neighboring black colleges were also present to witness this occasion. Two of our former Miss NCCU's also participated in this gala affair.

Miss NCCU's two attendants, Miss Sophronia Qualls and Miss Hope Brown were also the highlights of the evening. After moments of anticipation by the crowd, Miss Grace Ilene Dortch made her grand entrance. She was dressed very extravagantly in a white pleated gown.

Chancellor Albert N. Whiting was given the honor of crowning Miss NCCU, and her father presented her with flowers.

Grace is a native of Rocky Mount, North Carolina. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dortch. She was born under the sign of Leo. She is a member of the Future Business Educators Association and Basileus of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority. She has been very active in the Student Government and reigned as Miss Alpha Phi Alpha in 1976-1977. Grace is truely a queen among queens. She has represented this institution well and deserves the title of Miss North Carolina Central University.

The Coronation

The 1977 Homecoming Coronation was one of the most memorable occasions that took place during the week of homecoming festivities. It was during this time that many lovely queens from different organizations, fraternities and sororities stepped forth to participate in the coronation of Miss Homecoming.

One of the most exciting parts of the coronation was seeing Miss Homecomings' two attendants make their grand entrance. Miss Nathania Roberts and Miss Debra Clay were the two attendants.

The lights in B.N. Duke auditorium light up brightly to allow Miss Paris Ann Griffin to make her grand entrance. She was dressed in a most exquisite maroon halter gown.

Head Football captain Joseph Mack was given the honor of crowning Miss Homecoming. Miss North Carolina Central University presented her with flowers and a special song was sung to her by Miss Althia Robinson in her honor.

Paris is a native of Greensboro, North Carolina. She is a Senior drama major. She is also a number of the Ivan Dixon players and Swing Phi swing Social Fellowship. In 1976 she reigned as Miss Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

PEP RALLY

A battle of the classes
The excitement of the Freshmen
The enthusiasm of the Sophomores
The intensity of the Juniors
The superiority of the Seniors
—All in the spirit of an eagle.

The sloping hills of NCCU is part of all of us which is exhibited especially at Homecoming.

MOCK FUNERAL

Funeral services for big headed Tom Delaware, took place Thursday evening Oct. 13, 1977 at 8:25 p.m. It was scheduled at 8:00 but niggers are never on time. The spirit of the Eagle moved and touched every soul in the hot, funky smelling B. N. Duke. Each and Every heart, was touched with music, prayer, announcements, confessions, and a (I have a dream sermon by Rev. LESTER.) All must agree that we had FUN, FUN, FUN.

Dying Days

Cold, breathless, dark as the realms of night
Tom Delaware's body lays motionless, set for layment
Friends, family, foes, all at his eulogy giving their final respect
Collosses of maroon and grey, radiantly displayed through the shadows of gloom
Every Eagle and Eaglette ensembled in the mourning room
Chants of sadness and traces of joy fill the room circumspectly
For it is my fellow Eagles a D-Day for Delaware
T'was the end of life for Delaware in a foreign land T'was the beginning of life for the Eagles and yet another homicide at the palm of our superfluous head T'was the beginning of an Eagle dynasty!

HOMECOMING PARADE

"JOY STREAM"
A mystique dawn swallows darkness
Brisk clobbering cold accompanies its light.
Anticipation
Excitement
Rounds ups, Line ups, Runner ups,
And sweet natural black queens.
From Cornwallis to Pettigrew,
A journey through Paradise.
Colors, Sounds, People

And just things . . . things making people smile.
Bands marching and rocking to the funk
Blowing and drumming the latest sounds Getting Down.
Getting Off.
People dancing, People singing
Some watching . . . enjoying.
Spirits high as an Eagle,
Intensity
Fun
Joy Stream.

HOMECOMING GAME DELEWARE ST. VS N.C. CENTRAL

As the alumni and students of Eagleland filed bright-eyed into O'Kelly Stadium, the mighty Eagles football team was making ready for their annual homecoming showdown. The stands were filled with maroon and grey clad fans cheering on the Eagles.

Shouts,

Roars,

Pompons,

could be seen and heard right down to the final gun. Things just didn't look too good for the Eagles on the afternoon of October 15. Biting dust, sweating, and hitting hard, the fans saw the team respectively go down in defeat to Deleware State by the score of 24 to 0. A bitter loss but a hard fought battle.

The Eagle 1978 dedicates this special section of the yearbook to the many faculty members, instructors, secretaries and staff workers who have given dedicated service to North Carolina Central University and who have gone virtually unnoticed by the student body & university community.

In Memoriam

Nathaniel Swinson, a student of North Carolina Central University, died Sunday, February 5, 1978. It was determined Nathaniel died from massive sickling of the red blood cells.

We, the students of North Carolina Central University feel the loss of our fellow Eagle, and we will treasure our memories of Nate, as he was more commonly called.

Next?

Dear Eagles

This year has been the most difficult one for me, since I entered North Carolina Central University. It has made me realize many things about myself, my friends, and students of North Carolina Central University. I have encountered animosity, loneliness, distrust, and desertion, but all have made me the deepest bit stronger. I have found out that it takes more than just a good staff to produce a yearbook. A publication of this caliber takes guidance, endeavor, a belief in one's self, perseverance and uplift, all of which have to come from within the soul; And I thank God for providing me with an unconquerable soul, but nothing I did not anticipate.

I would like to thank my fellow staff members who stuck with me through the thick and the thin of it all, for you deserve more than I can ever give you. To Patsy Watts and Glenwood Davis, I thank you for your administrative guidance and to my fraternity brothers, members of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc., I thank you for providing your hands, hearts, and brotherly love in helping me in every way.

In closing, I would like to wish the continuing students of North Carolina Central University the best of luck in their future endeavors and peace. To the incoming editor of the next publication, I would like to wish him or her good luck, and NEXT.
